Finding the right place to stay in Sonoma County can sometimes be a challenge considering the diversity in unique, stellar options and your needs when choosing accommodations. Here are some top picks to kick up your feet and tuck in after exploring the many sides of Sonoma wine country.

Hilton Sonoma Wine Country

3555 Round Barn Boulevard

Santa Rosa, CA 95442

(707) 523-7555

TripAdvisor: 3.5 stars; 1245 reviews

Located in Santa Rosa, the Hilton Sonoma Wine Country is easily accessible to more than 300 wineries just a short ride away and the hotel concierge happily assists guests to arrange tastings or tours. Set on thirteen, beautiful acres, the hotel also hosts an olympic-sized swimming pool and a large event space for those planning a special day in a beautiful, wine country setting.

Insider Tip: The hotel is pet friendly and includes an area for walking furry pals on the property.

Inn at Sonoma, A Four Sisters Inn

630 Broadway Street

Sonoma, CA 95476

(707) 939-1340

TripAdvisor: 4.5 stars; 843 reviews

When staying at a Four Sisters Inn, it's easy to become accustomed to certain luxuries, such as the daily breakfast, afternoon wine and hors d'oeuvres, and their fresh-baked cookies. The Inn at Sonoma is no disappointment when it comes to those special touches, but it also happens to be just down the street from the historic and vibrant Sonoma Plaza. With 19 rooms in the main building and another eight in the newly completed Vintner's Cottage, there's no shortage of space to rest your head. And with such close proximity to Sonoma fun and the comforts of this charming inn, it's easy to feel like you're living like a local.

Insider Tip: Take out one of the Inn's complimentary bikes for a ride along the nearby bike path and be sure to stop at the wineries along the way.

Flamingo Resort and Spa

2777 Fourth Street

Santa Rosa, CA 95405

(707) 545-8530

TripAdvisor: 3.5 stars; 628 reviews

The Flamingo is a historic landmark that brings a touch of mid-century Vegas glamour to wine country. Located in Santa Rosa and with easy access to the wineries of Sonoma Valley, this is a great jump off point for exploring the area. There's an on-site health club and spa, which can be enjoyed for additional fees, but access to the hotel's gorgeous swimming pool is included with every stay. The Lounge at the Flamingo is a local favorite for live music and dancing. Stop in for their nights dedicated to swing and salsa music to get those legs moving.

Jenner Inn

10400 Coast Route 1

Jenner, CA 95450

(707) 865-2377

TripAdvisor: 3 stars; 289 reviews

Located on the Russian River just one mile from where the river meets the Pacific Ocean, the Jenner Inn offers a collection of delightful rooms and cottages in the cozy town of Jenner. Many of the rooms have balconies overlooking the river, and it's an amazing spot for decompressing, relaxing, and enjoying the surrounding nature and wildlife.

Vintners Inn

4350 Barnes Road
Santa Rosa, CA 95403
(800) 421-2584

TripAdvisor: 4.5 stars; 575 reviews

With an emphasis on providing a serene destination in the heart of wine country, the Vintners Inn is a terrific find. North of Santa Rosa, but close to main roads, the hotel's lush grounds are surrounded by picturesque vineyards. John Ash & Co., the inn's restaurant, was a wine country cuisine pioneer, crafting seasonal food with their fruit, vegetable, and herb gardens found on the property. There's also a spa on site that hosts services dedicated to weary travelers and overall wellness. Vintner's Inn is in the heart of the Russian River Valley and centrally located to access all of wine country. Insider Tip: Before booking, explore their getaway packages for seasonal specials and intriguing add-ons to your stay.

Best Western Dry Creek Inn

198 Dry Creek Road
Healdsburg, CA 95448
(707) 433-0300

TripAdvisor: 4 stars; 1903 reviews

Located right at the entrance to the Dry Creek Valley in Healdsburg, the Dry Creek Inn is part of the well known hotel chain, Best Western, and is a budget-friendly option for a stay in Sonoma wine country. It's a short drive, or about a mile walk down recently completed bike paths to downtown Healdsburg. The inn makes a great option for families coming to wine country, with two beautiful swimming pools and pet friendly rooms.

Insider Tip: The Villa Toscana rooms feature soaking tubs with relaxing jets, luxury spa bath products, fireplaces, and private outdoor spaces overlooking their picturesque piazza.
